Bellamy-Ferriday House & Garden
9 Main Street North, Bethlehem, CT

Reverend Joseph Bellamy built a home for his family & theological seminary on the town green in 1754. Expanded & embellished over the years, the house was restored & an extensive formal garden developed in the early 20th century by the Ferriday’s of New York City. Today, the property serves as a breathtaking combination of natural & manmade beauty, featuring collections of heirloom roses, lilacs & peonies. Original barns & farm buildings lend charm to the landscape.
