Colonial Camp
“Charting New Courses: Explorations in the Emerging Nation”
For ages 8-12
This year, we will focus on the period immediately after the Revolutionary War. As we punch tin ornaments, compose sun prints, dye textiles, make soap, and hand-sew journals, you'll discover how early residents used science and math to build their communities and the new nation! Each day, we'll also play games, have fun on scavenger hunts, and, of course, savor our favorite teas and period treats together.

$300/$275 CTL Members.
