Bellamy-Ferriday House & Garden
9 Main Street North, Bethlehem, CT

This quintessentially New England home was built in 1754 by Reverend Joseph Bellamy. In 1912, New Yorkers Henry and Eliza Ferriday purchased the property as a summer residence for themselves and their daughter Caroline Ferriday, a 20th-century philanthropist who championed human rights and social justice causes around the globe. Nestled on five acres of land, the property encompasses the 18th-century home, barns, orchard, and a formal parterre garden designed by Eliza and lovingly maintained by Caroline. Today, the property serves as a breathtaking combination of natural and manmade beauty, featuring collections of heirloom roses, lilacs, and peonies. The picturesque landscape will transport you back in time, or into one of Martha Hall Kelly's novels which were inspired by the site’s history.
