Making History Together!

Nathan Hale Homestead
2299 South Street, Coventry, CT

Built in 1776, the Nathan Hale Homestead is a National Historic Landmark and the birthplace of Connecticut’s State Hero, Nathan Hale. The property features an 18th-century English Barn with rare gunstock timber framing, a charming 19th-century Dairy Barn, and open pastures surrounded by stone walls and forest. This charming Georgian style home offers a quintessentially New England backdrop for your wedding day.
