

Making History Together!

Amos Bull House & Butler-McCook Garden

59 South Prospect Street, Hartford, CT

The renovated Amos Bull House and Butler-McCook House & Garden are adjoined by the historic 1865 Jacob Weidenmann-designed garden, creating the largest privately owned and publicly accessible green space in downtown Hartford. A bright meeting room features exposed wood beams and original brick walls as well as an A/V system, catering kitchen, and elevator access. The property is an oasis of history and charm, a superb location for small weddings, outdoor events, corporate meetings, and retreats.
